

Lieutenant Colonel Mike Carey is a Defense Trade Analyst and Agreements Officer at the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls, U.S. Department of State. He is a University of Virginia graduate and has a Masters of Arts degree from both Webster University and Air University. Mike has served over 18 years in the US Air Force as a Mobility Pilot, with experience in the C-21A Learjet, C-5M Super Galaxy, and the C-32A Boeing 757. In his most recent assignment in the C-32A, Mike was a Special Air Missions pilot for the Vice President, First Lady, Secretary of Defense, and Secretary of State.