

Lisa Williams is a Export Counselor with the Outreach and Educational Service Division, Office of Exporters Services, Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), U.S. Department of Commerce, in this role she educate the Export Industry with complying with the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) and she is the lead for Simplified Network Application Process Re-Design (SNAP-R) and provide guidance to the Export Industry regarding SNAP-R, conduct Seminars on Complying with the U.S. Export Controls and other outreach activities. Prior to joining Outreach and Educational Services, she worked in Export Management Compliance Division. She also worked in Office of Export Enforcement which was her first position at Department of Commerce.