

Jennifer K. Weinel

Corporate Director and Assistant General Counsel – Export/Import Northrop Grumman Law Department

Jennifer Weinel is the Corporate Director and Assistant General Counsel – Export/Import for Northrop Grumman Corporation. In this capacity, she leads the Export/Import Law practice group in providing advice and counselling to Northrop Grumman's four Sectors and the Corporate Office regarding export/import licensing and compliance under various U.S. regulatory regimes including the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), Export Administration Regulations, Office of Foreign Assets Control and U.S. Customs and Border Protection. Jennifer's areas of expertise include development of compliance strategies and identification of risks in international transactions, conducting investigations and assessments of export/import matters and performing export/import due diligence of proposed mergers, acquisitions and divestitures.

Jennifer joined Northrop Grumman in 2000, and prior to joining the Law Department, served in several roles supporting the Company's international activities. Jennifer served as Northrop Grumman's Corporate Senior Manager, Export/Import Compliance & Training with responsibility for performing companywide training and assessments, as well as preparing, coordinating and promulgating corporate policies and procedures relating to export/import licensing and compliance. Jennifer also served as an ITAR Empowered Official and as an Export Licensing Representative and Focal Point for the Command, Control, Communication, Computer, Intelligence, Surveillance, Reconnaissance and Naval (C4ISR&N) division of the Company's Electronic Systems (now Mission Systems) Sector.

Before joining Northrop Grumman, Jennifer was a practicing attorney with a boutique law firm in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in History with a Minor in Business Administration from the North Carolina Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount, North Carolina and her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Baltimore School of Law in Baltimore, Maryland. Jennifer is a member of the Maryland bar.

Jennifer is a Past President and now Advisor of the Society for International Affairs (SIA), a non-profit organization whose mission is to educate the international trade community on all aspects of technology transfer by providing a forum for the exchange of information on export and import processes. She served on SIA's Board of Directors from 2008-2018.
